Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 13-18, 28-33, and 36-40, drawn to a method and system of remote video interpreting using a relay system to facilitate communications between a first party and a second party by converting received video/audio messages into respective audio/video message before transmitting to the second party, classified in class 704, subclass 271.
 - II. Claims 1-12, 19-27, and 34-35, drawn to a method and system of remote video interpreting using a relay system to facilitate communications between a first party and a second party by storing video or audio messages in mailbox for later retrieved by the owner of the mailbox, classified in class 704, subclass 271.
2. Inventions of groups I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the invention of group I does not require a video or audio mailbox to facilitate communications between the first and second party. The subcombination has separate utility such as storing video or audio messages when the second party is not available to answer the first party's call. Subject matters describing specific steps of storing/retrieving video messages in/from mailbox is classified under class 348, subclass 14.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Group II requires a search in class 348, subclass 14.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
